Alex,

[REDACTED]

It appears that Glenn's case on ENRC is now back on, but I will believe it when he actually signs the contract.

Look forward to catching up with you properly next week

Mark

Gertler pops up again in High Court
Does the name Dan Gertler ring any bells? He's the Israeli diamond billionaire who bought a company from the Congolese government for $20m (£12m) and then sold it as part of a package a couple of months later to ENRC for $175m - in a deal that got the FTSE 100 miner into hot water.

Mr Gertler, a close friend of Congolese president, Joseph Kabila, is also a business partner of Glencore in the Congo.
